A NARROW ESCAPE.

Painter John Cobb Receives a Dangerous Fall.

Yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock the people on Second street in the neighborhood of Mr. C. D. Russell's business house were startled by seeing a man fall from the second story window to the pavement below, a distance of some twenty feet.

Mr. John Cobb, who is employed by Messrs. Shafer & Davis, was painting the outside of a window frame, and the window being raised, necessitated his catching hold of the bottom of the sash in order to get a handhold to stand on his feet.

He was making a long reach for the top, when in some manner the window started to fall down, and Mr. Cobb, in order to save himself, made a leap for his life, turning clear round and alighting on the pavement below on his feet, falling over on his head, cutting two small gashes and otherwise bruising it.

For awhile it was feared he was internally hurt, but after rubbing and working with him a short time he came around all right and resumed his work.

It was a narrow escape, for had he hit the pavement the way he started—head foremost—he would have certainly dashed his brains out.

As it was, Mr. Cobb was considerably shaken up, and it is safe to say he will not be found doing any more circus acts for awhile.

DIDN'T GET TOGETHER.

THE IRONTON MISFITS KNOCK THE LOCALS SILLY.

The Game at Ironton Yesterday Bum With a Big B—Another Game This Afternoon—Short Steps.

Kick! Kick! Kick! And there's one coming, too. Manager Melville's Misfits may well be proud.

They were too much for the Mayville boys yesterday for— Ironton 11, Mayville 12.

That's the "cherishing" news that was clicked off by the telegraph machine in this city last night.

George Reiman, the man who has thrown down the Cincinnati Reds twice and the Washington Senators once, and who has been the man we could rely on to pull us out of a bad fix, went into the box a sick man, and after trying to pitch in that condition was knocked completely out, Hillery having to go in and finish out the game.

The Ironton team was composed of men from Huntington, and other river points just for this occasion, but that is no reason why they should defeat the Mayville boys.

But with Willie Weller in the box, and all the boys feeling all right and playing ball as they do when they win, we predict a nice clean dose of white wash,—just what Weller is capable of doing since "the pin feather Editor" of THE LEADER gave him a couple of punches.

Just to think, a club with such a reputation as the Mayville boys have, go away from home and let a crowd of misfits do them up and knock the best pitcher we have out the box is enough to make ice water run out of a volcano.

But the boys were beaten, and that is the story.

SHORT STEPS.

The Vanceburg Sun is still talking about that great club of theirs. Listen at this piece of rot from that paper: "The Colonels had no idea of winning the game from Mayville, but started in bravely to try it, but it not to be disappointed if they did not."

The Covington Commonwealth is one of our good "rooters." Here is what it thinks of the team: "Hurrah for Mayville! They again defeated the Manhattan of Cincinnati yesterday by a score of 7 to 6. The day previous the Cincinnati Reds were shut out. Has Ohio anything that can beat the boys from Mayville?"

Not when they play ball, but Ironton's misfits caught them napping yesterday. The Commercial Gazette, speaking of several of our players, says: "The friends of Johnny Heleman, the Cincinnati boy who is playing such a great game for the Mayville team, will be pleased to hear that he may soon break into fast company. Johnny has a good offer from the Detroit Western League team, but he may not join them until next season. Reiman of Covington, who is a member of the same team, also has an offer from the same club. The boys do not like to leave Mayville, however, as they have been treated royally both by the management and public. The two defeats that the Mayville team has caused the Reds to suffer has attracted the attention of minor league managers to the players of the team, and the chances are that several of them will be given a trial in fast company next season."

The Editor of The Brookville Review saw the Cincinnati-Mayville game in this city, and this is what he thinks of it: "The game of ball between the Reds of Cincinnati and the Mayville team Friday, on the latter's grounds, was one of the finest and closest games ever played. To the surprise of about 1,500 of the 3,000 people who witnessed the game the Reds suffered defeat, the score standing 9 to 3 in favor of Mayville. The game was replete with fine playing; both sides batted hard and every inning brought a sensational catch or pick-up, followed by matches base throwing. Mayville certainly has a team of wonderful amateurs, and all honor is due them for defeating the Reds; they simply outplayed them at every point. Mr. Mathews of Mayville umpired the game very satisfactorily. In close plays, he gave the Mayville the benefit of the doubt, but altogether, his decisions were fairer than that of most League Umpires."

Schmidt is pitching for the New Orleans team in the Southern League. Stultz, who pitched for the Shelbyville team last season, is now playing with the St. Joseph team.

McCormick, with last season's Gymnasiums, is playing second base for the New Orleans team.

The tail-enders are doing their share in making the League race interesting by throwing down the leaders.

The Louisville have not only greatly improved in batting and fielding but have become expert base runners.

Taylor, who played third for Mayville during the Cleveland game last season, is playing short for Milwaukee.

The Mayville Pickers challenge any team in Mason county for a ball game. Address Wood Noel, Manager, care LEADER.

Daniels, formerly with the Georgetown team and who pitched against our team last season, is playing with the Nashville team.

George Nie, who caught for the Locals part of last season, is now catching for the Grand Rapids team in the Western League.

If the Mayville boys only knew how anxious the Mayville people are for them to win every game they play, they would go in and do that very thing.

Bodemer of the Navies, who was hurt at Vanceburg, is improving. He has been laid up in bed for the past four days, but was able to be out awhile today.

Dick Carr's Nine was defeated yesterday by the Pickers and six umpires by a score of 9 to 8. Batteries for Carr's Nine—Orr and Molen. Batteries for Pickers—two star babies. All the Pickers but four got their release, and the soon caught got his finger broke. Time of game 1:30.

The Navies will go to Knoxville, Tenn., on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week. Terms were agreed upon Thursday afternoon between Manager F. H. Moffett of the Knoxville team and Manager Tiek. The Navies leave Cincinnati on next Tuesday evening.

The Ashland News says this about one of our star pitchers, catchers, batters and fielders: "Hillery, the young fellow whose long hair didn't mind the sun at the recent contests here, pitched his first game for the Mayvilles against the Manhattan Wednesday, and let them down with seven hits."

Johnny "Dugan" Dunn, a little fellow who is one of the most enthusiastic "rooters" for Mayville Club has, as signed as the mascot for the team. Johnny was placed in position between Reiman and Tenley on the picture that was taken Wednesday. He was dressed up in his new uniform, with his mask and mung to his belt, and was taken along to Ironton to "quer" the misfits of that town, but Johnny proved a Jonah. The boys lost out by a close margin, and it is all blamed on "Dugan."

Fletcher Day of the Felicity (O.) Times is a Mayville "rooster" sure enough. Just listen at him: "Walking upon their heads,—Foremast as Mayville's truly great, great baseball club gave Cincinnati's famous pets a second successive lambasting, the citizens of each and every ward and precinct at Mayville, with some out at Washington and a number over at Aberdeen, are walking upon their heads."

"The public dementia is not only universal, but it has struck in. Every mother's son and daughter, regardless of age, size or previous condition of servitude, either as slave or convict, including bankers, the clergy and the priesthood, has got it. And with frost naturally several weeks in the future, nobody either seems to know, or care, for the matter of that 'What in the Sam. Hill is going to be done about it.'

"The collapse took place last Friday afternoon at about 3 o'clock standard time, and immediately succeeded the sound and thorough defeat of the Cincinnati's in one of the very best exhibitions ever put up at any place or time. Some weeks since the very same thing happened, yet a good many people were pleased to say that the result was an accident, and all that sort of thing; but it wasn't anything of the sort.

"At all events the big redstockinged representatives of the major league were universally and unmercifully 'ruled' and twitted in relation to their brief but red-hot experience at the tight little Limestone city.

"So it came on that a second joust was arranged for, to take place as already stated, 'Black' Ewing, the busy commander of the Paris d'Amerique, announced it to be his deliberate intention to run the gray-legged Corn-crackers into the river, after pounding all of the life out of them, and all that sort of thing.

"But he didn't do any of those things, or any part of any one of them. The result has been told, in part; human agencies could tell the half of it. The score was 3 to 2, and when the Cincinnati game was cooked, the 3,000 Colonels, who composed the congregation, for the largest part, arose as the proverbial 'one man' and howled so loudly that the waters of the Ohio were tossed and broken by great waves and spray. Moreover, they went about, raving mad, as did the populace, as the news was quickly flashed about the city.

"While putting forth a faint squeak against the umpire, The Commercial Gazette freely admitted that the Reds were roundly, soundly and fairly thrashed, and that the Corn-crackers fully merited their splendid, repeated victory. Other leaguers aspiring to trouble can meet up with it at Mayville. Meanwhile the locals own the city, whose people will be waiting upon their articulars for yet many days to come. Great is the National inflection! And great are Mayville's exponents of it!"

KENTUCKY REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

We are opposed to the free and unlimited coinage of silver, believing that it would tend to the country in financial ruin. We believe in a sound currency and in the use of both gold and silver for coinage, provided always that a dollar in coin be made precisely as valuable as a dollar in the other.
We favor a tariff so regulated as to protect the interests of all classes of our citizens upon articles that may be successfully manufactured or produced in this country, thus insuring good wages to the laborer and a home market for the producer; and in connection with this we favor the establishment of the doctrine of reciprocity. We believe that such a system will defray every Government expense, gradually liquidate all indebtedness, restore public confidence and relieve to the very bottom the present depression concerning the currency. In view of the past financial history of the Democratic party, its tendency to the old coinage system and wildcat tendencies, we affirm that the Republican party can be more safely trusted to regulate the financial system of the Nation.
We favor an American policy which will protect Americans and American interests in any part of the world at all hazards and will sympathize with struggling Republics rather than ignorant monarchies.

FAMILY REUNION.

The Condit Family Will Gather Together at Columbus, O.

There will be a reunion of the Condit family at Columbus, O., next week, at which Rev. W. C. Condit, D.D., formerly of Washington, now of Ashland, will deliver an address.

The Condit has been prominent divines in the Presbyterian Church for almost a century, and are men of mark and piety wherever found.
Rev. John H. Condit preached at Washington for a quarter of a century, and left a name for everything that is of good behind him, the like of which few mortals attain unto.

Before going to the Fair at Columbus, he got the pretty hats and headgear at Mrs. L. V. Davis's.

The demand for money is growing. There are those who see no occasion for rejoicing in this, the demand, to their certain knowledge, never having ceased or decreased.

But the Subtreasurer is alive to the fact that this growing demand, directed to him, is an indication of a revival of industry, a growth of manufacturing activity.

The Lexington Leader, the champion paper of the bluegrass capital, must have had a set of hungry reporters or a half-famished editor who saw a bucketer wagon go by the office and heard the proprietor yelling his prices when this paragraph was written:
"With potatoes at 25 cents a bushel, corn at 5 cents a dozen (roasting ears), apples 15 cents a bushel, tomatoes 5 cents a dozen, and other vegetables to be had almost for the gathering, no one need go hungry in this land, which, in addition, almost flows with milk and honey."

BRADSTREET'S

Review of Business for the Past Week.

Leading Manufacturing Industries Exceptionally Busy for the Season.

Railroad Earnings Show Gains Over Last Year—Exports of Wheat and Flour Slightly Increasing—Jobbers in the Western Cities Well Satisfied.

New York, Aug. 17.—Bradstreet's Saturday says: Midsummer quiet is conspicuous this week, and it is worth adding that the increase in output of and the demand and prices for iron and steel still continues.

Gross and net railroad earnings returns for the first half of the present year show very satisfactory aggregate gains over last year, a period of great coal and railroad strikes and of financial and industrial depression and derangement. The best showings in net earnings are made by the central western, western and southwestern roads, while the only decreases noted are in the granger and southern roads.

Exports of wheat, and flour as wheat, from both coasts of the United States have been slowly increasing for four weeks past. This week they amount to 1,824,000 bushels against 1,550,000 bushels last week, 2,070,000 bushels in the week a year ago; 6,120,000 bushels in the second week of August, 1903; 7,300,000 bushels in 1892 and 8,701,000 bushels in the corresponding week in 1901.

Jobbers in the more important staple lines of Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Milwaukee, Minneapolis and St. Paul, report an improved demand. The outlook at all these points is for an active fall business, and the larger among them report country merchants are personally selecting fall stocks quite as freely as expected.
